Code of Regulations

Summit County Republican Central Committee

Section 10
Amendments

The Code of Regulations of the Central Committee may be altered or amended at any time by a two-thirds vote of the Central Committee at a meeting called for that specific purpose.

Section 9
Other Rules and Regulations

9.1 Candidate Support. The Central Committee and Executive Committee shall pledge its support to only those state and local candidates who are duly nominated in Republican Primary elections, the Presidential and Vice-Presidential candidates duly nominated at the Republican National Convention, and any additional candidates who are endorsed by the Central Committee or the Executive Committee to fill vacancies on the ticket.

9.2 Lincoln Day Dinner. The officers of the Central Committee, in conjunction with the officers of the Executive Committee, shall continue to hold the annual Lincoln Day Dinner, if in their judgment it is desirable to hold such an affair, and to do such other acts as will promote Republican Party success.

9.3 Candidate Endorsements. Following any filing deadline, the Officers of the Central and Executive Committees may meet and interview candidates for office and prepare a report for consideration by the Executive Committee for endorsements for the primary and/or general election ballot. The Executive Committee may accept, amend or reject the Officers’ report. Any endorsements of the Executive Committee must be approved by a vote of at least 60% of the members present.

9.4 Robert’s Rules of Order. The most recent edition of Robert’s Rules of Order shall govern all proceedings of the Central Committee, Executive Committee, Finance Committee, Audit Committee, other committees of the Summit County Republican Party or the officers thereof not specifically covered by these rules.

Section 1 General

1.1 Name. This organization is the Summit County Republican Central Committee (the “Central Committee”).

1.2 Powers. The Central Committee will have such powers as are now, or may hereafter be granted by Ohio law and/or by this Code of Regulations.

Section 2 Offices

The principal office of the Central Committee will be in Summit County, Ohio, or at such other place as the Central and/or Executive Committee may from time to time appoint or as the activities of the Central and/or Executive Committee may require.

Section 3 Central Committee Membership

3.1 Composition of Central Committee. The Central Committee will, in accordance with O.R.C. 3517.03, consist of one member from each precinct in the County of Summit who files their Declaration of Candidacy and Petition with the Summit County Board of Elections and is duly elected for a four-year term or is appointed as provided for herein.

3.2 Vacancies.

- (a) The Central Committee and/or the Executive Committee each shall be authorized to fill any vacancies that may occur on the Central Committee.
- (b) The Central Committee authorizes and delegates to the Executive Committee the authority to fill any vacancies that may occur as to Republican candidates and/or officeholders as permitted by law.

3.3 Automatic Expulsion.

- (a) Any candidate for election to the Central Committee who, during their candidacy, either (i) votes in a partisan primary other than a Republican primary, or (ii) permits his or her name to be used, or his or her campaign committee to be used, on behalf of or solicits or gives support to or for any candidate other than a Republican candidate in any primary election, shall be ineligible to take his/her office as a Member of the Central Committee, if elected.
- (b) Any member of the Central Committee who, during their term of office, votes in a partisan primary other than a Republican primary, automatically ceases to be a member of the Central Committee.
- (c) Any member of the Central Committee who, during their term of office, permits his or her name to be used, or his or her campaign committee to be used on behalf of or solicits or gives support to or for any candidate other than a Republican candidate in any primary, or who permits his or her name to be used, or his or her campaign committee to be used on behalf of, or solicits or gives support for a
